

World Youth Democracy Forum

Eliot Sorel, M.D., Founder & Chairman

Institute of European, Russian & Eurasian Studies

Elliott School of International Affairs

The George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

Mission & Vision

- Launched at Elliott School of International Affairs, the George Washington University, in December 2008
- A laboratory/platform for exchange of ideas, experiences, and projects among democracy practitioners, advocates and emerging young democratic leaders
- Democratic leaders, established and emerging, sharing biographical and hands on experiences in a very personal and pragmatic narrative
- Role model and inspire world youth to learn by example
- Integrating personal and professional pioneering experiences on
- Promoting, defending and standing up for democracy
- Via robust give and take, and open dialogue
- Inspire the development of own democracy projects in their regions
- Develop similar YDF elsewhere in the world and virtually link them
- The World Youth Democracy Forum will thus be virtually linked
- Stimulating an ongoing dialogue, explore proposed projects, initiatives
- The World Youth Democracy Forum (WYDF) of the Washington, D.C. Area will reconvene yearly in tandem with the IRDA at WWICS and other interested Washington, DC, academic, and global partners